

What is the Lightbearers Institute?

The Lightbearers Institute is the primary teaching element in the Lightbearers Discipleship Community. It is a classroom setting where over the span of two years, students attend over fifty class sessions and complete two courses: Biblical Survey and Theology and Practice. The Institute seeks to give students Biblical literacy and sound doctrine, equipping them as church members for a lifetime and then stepping away to allow their churches will build upon this introductory foundational knowledge. In addition to participating in the Institute, students in a Lightbearers Discipleship Community live in intentional small groups led by a house leader, meet regularly with a mentor from their local church and are exposed to the work of the body of Christ among the nations. Our prayer is that these commitments connect students for life with Jesus, his people and his plan for the ends of the earth while we use their rental income to fund mission projects in Asia and northern Africa.

Lightbearers is not the church but, rather, exists to serve the local church. This conviction has impact in many areas, including the fact that the Lightbearers Institute is primarily taught by local pastors in order to emphasize to students our ministry's subordinate role and to introduce students to several healthy local churches. Remaining classes are taught by Lightbearers staff members and, in some instances, church laymen and laywomen.

Week 13: Pneumatology - Who is the Holy Spirit

Thesis: Jesus says it is better for us if he is in heaven and the Spirit is here. If that is the case, we should be passionate to know the Spirit as Scripture describes him and submit ourselves to his grace and truth, direction and empowerment. Many believers, however, fall into one of two ditches regarding the Holy Spirit—they either: 1) ignore him altogether or; b) seek him as a sort of proof of one's spiritual maturity. Instead, believers should seek the middle ground. We should actively seek the Spirit's filling and empowerment because the Father and Son give him to us as a wonderful gift—proclaiming our adoption as God's children, guaranteeing our salvation, and empowering us for sanctification and ministry. At the same time, we must recognize that the Spirit points us back to Christ and his work rather than pointing to himself or to individuals.

Primary Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, students should understand: 1) The Holy Spirit is the third person in the trinity and accordingly worthy of worship, glory and honor; 2) The Spirit has been present and active throughout human history but beginning at Pentecost, we have entered the age of the Spirit; 3) The Spirit gives believers new birth and seals them in Christ, acting as a guarantee of their salvation; 4) The Spirit enables and empowers believers to honor God, defeat sin in their own lives, and serve fellow believers through their churches (including through specific spiritual gifts); 5) Christians receive the Holy Spirit at the moment of salvation, but they should regularly seek to be filled with the Spirit; and 6) The Spirit always glorifies Jesus and points people to the things that he did and said.

Key Readings: Genesis 1, Joel 2, Luke 4, John 16, Acts 2, 1 Corinthians 12 & 14

Things to Remember:

- The Lightbearers Institute aims to teach Biblical literacy and doctrinal soundness. Christian unity and a love of Scripture should be displayed above the ability to win an argument. On potentially contentious doctrines, we primarily want to emphasize to students the bounds of historical evangelical orthodox faith. You are free to outline your particular opinion on these doctrines, but please acknowledge to students where there is notable legitimate debate on an issue.
- Class sessions usually run for 90 minutes and take place in an academic setting (students seated at tables), but please communicate with your local campus staff for exact details and location.
- In an effort to encourage students to engage with Scripture, students have assigned key readings (listed above), so it is wise to reference some of these readings. We do not ensure students have completed the assigned readings but mentioning and/or discussing these readings, particularly the bolded chapter, during class reinforces to students the need to complete these readings.
- Lightbearers Theology and Practice course follows an outline loosely based on Wayne Grudem's Systematic Theology. Please note, however, that students have not read Systematic Theology by Wayne Grudem.
- Please prepare an outline for students. A sample outline follows, but please note that this material is suggestive rather than prescriptive. Please use this sample to whatever extent is helpful to you, and communicate with local campus staff with any specific questions you have.
- Our most successful instructors consistently do three things: 1. Demonstrate clearly that their teaching and opinions are based in Scripture; 2. Communicate with students in an engaging manner; 3. Have a passion for the Scriptures and the God who inspired them.
